Mrs. D. W. Sanders, one of the estimable lady pioneers of this county, who has lived for a number of years in Concho, has been for a long time a sufferer from a malady similar to a cancerous growth. Her many friends are sorry that she is afflicted, and hope to see her fully recovered.

Hon. Hilario Martinez addressed the people of Concho Saturday and Sunday evenings last upon the issues of the day, politically, and was frequently applauded by the large audiences, during his eloquent and logical speeches in behalf of republican doctrines.

Between 60,000 and 70,000 bushels of oats and wheat have been threshed by the two separate threshing machine companies in the Round Valley country to date, and still more to thresh.

Local Option carried by a big majority, compared with the entire vote cast in last Saturday's election. This county will be "dry" then, according to the verdict of the majority of those voting.

The Academy Basketball teams left here Wednesday morning for Snowflake, where they will play the Snowflake and Flagstaff teams on Thanksgiving.

Mr. S. E. Lewis, of Ramah, New Mexico, spent last Saturday and Sunday in St. Johns. Mr. Lewis reports good crops at Ramah and the prospects for next year are excellent.

If it so happens that you don't see all the candidates for county offices of the two parties, please remember each of them did their best to see you.

Mr. T. E. Irvine, of the McNeil Printing Co., Phoenix, Arizona, was a pleasant visitor at the HERALD-NEWS office Monday. Call again Bro. Irvine, we will always give you a cordial welcome.

The firm of J. Candelaria & Sons, General Merchandise, at Concho, are busy these days selling goods to their numerous customers, from their large and complete line of goods.

One of our old time citizens, Joseph Udall, of Eagar, was in town during the week with a load of oats. Mr. Udall reports good crops at Eagar.

County Superintendent of Schools, Monico Garcia, is out visiting schools this week and also looking a "leettle out" for the political fences.

The Lyman Irrigation Co., is now having a big force of men in the cement and concrete work of the outlet from the dam to the canal.

Two threshing machines are busy in Greer Valley below our town, getting ready the big crops of grain for the market.

Mr. Adon Gonzales, an old time resident of Apache County was in from the 22 ranch a few days this week.

A. & B. Schuster have just received at their store a full and complete line of Christmas goods.

Messrs. Ove E. Cverson and G. E. Greer left Monday for a tour in the southern part of the county.

The Concho Mercantile Co's big phonograph delights the whole town with its variety of music.

Mr. and Mrs. O. D. Gallegos, whose wedding was recently announced in our columns, are at home here, having come in last week. A grand ball was given them upon their arrival here also another in Concho during a brief visit there.

A. M. Patten, Esq., of the Lyman Irrigation Co., came in last week, and will remain some time looking after affairs of the Company in company with Attorney J. H. Sherman, who has been here some time.

It is reported that B. Schuster, who went to Los Angeles, for special treatment some weeks ago, has been dangerously ill. Latest reports say that he is now much improved.

J. W. Waite, who in former times learned the printing business "from the ground floor up," is now regularly employed in this office getting out this great family newspaper.

Messrs. Fred Hofman, M. Hale and Arthur Jarvis, of the south side were welcome visitors of this sanctum last week.

Hon. Fred T. Colter, J. C. Tyler and John C. Hall were in town Tuesday and Wednesday, doing a little political work, etc.

There are several Zuni Indians in town this week, taking in the "sights," and selling corn and pinions.

Pres. D. K. Udall's residence is nearing completion, and will add greatly to beautifying our city.

On account of cold weather the brick work has been suspended on Richard Gibbons' residence.
